

JONES KELLEHER LLP BOSTON / PROVIDENCE

The attorneys at Jones Kelleher have achieved national recognition for their handling of some of the most complex, high-stakes and historic personal injury cases in New England. The team of lawyers has established a long history of achieving multimillion dollar recoveries in sophisticated general liability and medical malpractice cases for its clients.

In January 2014, the Cooley Manion Jones LLP personal injury practice group became Jones Kelleher LLP. The name changed, but the legal team and its commitment to excellence remain the same. These accomplished lawyers, including Patrick Jones, Donna Corcoran, Tim Kelleher, Rob DeLello, Ralph Liguori, Richard Paterniti, Audrey Poore and Erin Thurston, represent over 140 years of combined experience over a broad spectrum of high-end catastrophic personal injury and medical malpractice matters. The attorneys at Jones Kelleher have built a legal practice that has become a recognized leader in New England. "The reach and success of our practice is a testament to our depth of experience and access to resources," explains partner DeLello. "We ensure that every case is properly prepared for trial by a hand-selected team, leading to significant results for our clients." Adds partner Corcoran, "We're able to anticipate and prepare for any situation that may impact our clients. We continue to provide the same level of commitment to our clients as we have for three decades."

Jones Kelleher attorneys have also been recognized individually in publications such as Super Lawyers Magazine and The Best Lawyers in America for their result-oriented advocacy. The team of attorneys includes members and leaders of prominent legal organizations: Pat Jones is a Past-President of the Massachusetts Academy of Trial Attorneys (MATA) and the Rhode Island Association for Justice (RIAJ). Tim Kelleher is also a Past-President of MATA. "The stability of our team over the past 30 years is a benchmark of the commitment we share for each other and for our clients," explains partner Jones. "We are proud to continue that tradition as Jones Kelleher LLP."

Building on their commitment to improving lives, the attorneys are actively involved in charity work, contributing to many academic institutions and nonprofit organizations. Attorneys also participate in continuing legal education programs and lecture at local law schools and colleges.
